of Harvard University; Mr. Charles McCarthy of Lawrence, Mass.; Mr. Douglas Peachy and Mr. Buehler Metcalfe of Nebraska.

The out-of-town guests here for the wedding include Dr. and Mrs. Edward Burt Perrin of Williams, parents of the bridegroom; his sister and niece, Mrs. Lee Robinson and Miss Lila Robinson of Louisville, and Mrs. William F. Steed, also of Louisville.

In St. Paul's Church, at 11 o'clock this morning, the marriage of Miss Frances Peak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis R. Peak of Wyoming avenue, to Mr. Joseph J. Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Crowley, took place. The Rev. Dr. Tynan officiating.

The bride wore a graceful gown of georgette and satin, her veil of lace being adjusted with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Attending her as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Louis J. Murray of Grand Rapids, Mich., who wore a gown of pink shaded georgette and carried chrysanthemums shading from pink to mauve. The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Crowley and Miss Agatha Peak, wore costumes like that of the matron of honor.

The church was decorated about the altar with palms, ferns and pink chrysanthemums. Dr. Jerome Crowley attended the bridegroom as best man. The ushers were Mr. Thomas R. Crowley, Mr. William J. Guilman, Mr. Joyce McGuiness and Mr. Joseph J. McGuiness.

A reception at the home of the bride followed the ceremony, and later Mr. Crowley and his bride left for a short wedding journey. They will make their home in Washington on their return.

Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. James Ebelien of Baltimore, Mr. and Mrs. Farrell and Miss Farrell of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hilton of southern Maryland.

The wedding took place yesterday afternoon in the First Baptist Church, of Miss Helen Denzel Brown, daughter of Mr. Charles Ashton Brown of Richmond, Va., and Mr. Edward Lewis Lane of Ashland, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Henry Allen Tupper, in the presence of a large circle of friends. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. M. E. Williams of Hartford, Conn., and Richmond, Va., and Miss Lila Lane and Mr. Ernest Lane of Ashland, Va.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of brown duvetyne with seal trimmings, with hat and veil to match, and wore a corsage bouquet of bride roses and orchids. The bride and bridegroom left immediately for an extended northern tour. They will be at home after December 1 at Ashland, Va.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Hunter Maurice, daughter of Mrs. Josephine E. Maurice, to Mr. Robert Dinwiddie Griggs, Jr. of Gainesville, Fla., will be performed by Rev. Percy Foster Hall tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, in the Church of the Epiphany. A luncheon for the bridal party will follow at the home of the bride's mother.

The marriage of Miss Mildred Marion Monroe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Monroe, to Mr. James Pryor Long by Rev. Percy Foster Hall, November 19, in the Ingram Memorial Church, Rev. John Paul Tyler of Epworth M. E. Church South performing the ceremony at 8 o'clock. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of white georgette with pearl beading, a wreath of orange blossoms holding her veil in place. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Attending her was her sister, Miss Alfreda Monroe, who wore pale green orrandle, and carried pink roses.

French was best man for Mr. Long, and the ushers were Mr. Charles Monroe, brother of the bride, Mr. Arthur Rohman, Mr. Howard McArthur and Mr. Louis Hawley. A reception at the home of the bride's parents on Capitol Hill followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Long will be at home after December 1 at 622 1/2 4th street northeast.

Gen. and Mrs. Wetherspoon to Sail. Maj. Gen. and Mrs. William Wallace Wetherspoon, who left Washington Monday, are at the Hotel Astor, New York, and will leave tomorrow for Bermuda. Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Wetherspoon will return in April to make their home in Washington.

The League of American Pen Women will have Mr. Roi Cooper Megrue as its guest of honor on Wednesday, at the clubhouse, 1722 H street northwest. Mr. Megrue is the author of a series of delightful plays, and one of them, "Honors Are Even," was presented for the first time at the Shubert-Garrick Theater last night. He will talk to the writing women and playwrights. William Courtenay and Lola Fisher, co-stars in the cast, are also to be featured. The league on Wednesday, as well as Mrs. Courtenay, formerly Virginia Harned, and

Mr. Megrue's mother, both of whom came to Washington from New York to see the first presentation of the play. Mrs. Clara Sears Taylor, rent commissioner, will serve tea Wednesday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Appleton P. Clark, Miss Virginia Carter Castleman and Mrs. L. M. Callison, the members of the board of governors receiving.

Miss Hortense L. Smith, daughter of the late Gen. Joseph S. Smith, sometime governor of the National Soldiers' Home, has returned to Washington, and has taken an apartment at the Arlington Hotel for the winter.

Mrs. Lee Benoit, formerly of St. Louis and New Orleans, is making her home in Washington, and will be with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Turner, 1311 New Hampshire avenue, for the winter.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its second dance of its annual series at the New Willard, Monday, December 6, at 9 o'clock, dancing to continue until 1 o'clock. The president, Mrs. George Horning, has appointed Mrs. Walter E. Hutton chairman of the social functions for the coming season, the full committee to be announced later.

Mrs. William Leroy Jackson, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Nash, during October, is now in Florida with friends, and will be at home, at Asheville, N. C., after December 1.

The City Club will give a Thanksgiving day dinner dance on Thursday evening. A special table d'hôte dinner will be served from 6 to 8:30, and there will be dancing from 9 until 12. Music will be furnished by an orchestra. The club will be especially decorated for the occasion. Members of the club have the privilege of taking as many guests as they choose to. Although reservations are not necessary, the house committee has asked that those intending to be present notify the club of the number in the party and the approximate time of dining in order to facilitate the service.

A pleasing affair of the season will be the annual bridge party to be given by Dixie Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Monday afternoon, November 29, at Wardman Park Hotel. Playing will commence at 2 o'clock, and there will be a prize for each table. Among the hostesses are: Mrs. Paul L. Joachim, Mrs. Rolfe Bolling, Mrs. Bates Warren, Mrs. Alfred H. Marsh, Mrs. Frank Morrison, Miss Margaret Daniel, Mrs. Frank Birthright, Miss May Little, Mrs. Nancy S. Hazard, Mrs. David A. Skinner, Mrs. John S. Tomlinson, Mrs. W. E. Rose, Mrs. Warren D. Bruch, Mrs. Gustavus Werber, Mrs. George Covington, Mrs. Victor H. Olmstead, Mrs. Benjamin Soule Gantz, Mrs. D. E. Winsted, Mrs. Samuel E. Milton, Miss Louise Limbrick, Mrs. Jessie Lee Webb and Mrs. Anne E. Taber.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Hoffheimer of 618 Raleigh avenue, Norfolk, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter Ruth to Mr. Max Gumbler of Columbus, Ohio. Miss Hoffheimer has many relatives and friends in Washington and frequently visits them here.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul L. Joachim will entertain a house party over the holidays at their country home, in southern Maryland. The party will leave Washington Wednesday, returning Sunday.

The work of the soldiers in the various hospitals will be on sale at the yuletide fete at the New Willard, December 1 and 2, at the December booth, of which Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh is honorary chairman, and where Mrs. Grouitch, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. Mary Lawrence Townsend, Miss Hammond, Mrs. Horace Westcott, Mrs. Herron and Mrs. Randolph Minor, with others, will preside.

Mr. and Mrs. John Craig of Toronto, Canada, are in Washington for a week, staying at the Hotel Washington.

Miss Louise C. Wilson of 1625 Otis place northwest, has changed her residence to 2714 13th street northwest.
